Rajasthan in 2025: Tragedies, tough laws and political churn mark a turbulent year

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

JAIPUR, DEC 30: A series of tragedies, passage of a stringent anti-conversion law in the state Assembly, environmental disputes and governance challenges. These are the issues that Rajasthan navigated in 2025 as it pitched long-term growth aligned with national goals. One of the gravest incidents occurred in October when a massive fire blazed through the neuro ICU in Rajasthan's largest Sawai Man Singh government hospital in Jaipur, killing six of the 11 patients on critical care support. Fourteen patients from another ICU on the same floor were also evacuated, and two of them later died. Days later, 40 LPG cylinders exploded one after another on the Jaipur-

Ajmer highway after a truck carrying them caught fire following a collision with a tanker. The tanker driver was burned alive, and another man was injured. The incident revived memories of a similar collision on the same highway in December 2024 that killed 19 people. Less than a week later, a private sleeper bus caught fire in Jaisalmer, barely 10 minutes after starting its journey to Jodhpur, killing 20 people on the spot. The death toll eventually increased to 29. Army personnel joined rescue efforts, breaking open doors and windows, while water from a passing tanker was used to douse the flames. Two weeks later, another private bus caught fire due to electrocution in Jaipur's Manoharpur area, killing two and injuring 10.
