Saudi bombards Yemen port after UAE arms delivery

Saudi Arabia calls UAE action 'extremely dangerous' as separatist tensions deepen

DUBAI

SAUDI Arabia bombed Yemen's port city of Mukalla on Tuesday after a weapons shipment from the United Arab Emirates arrived for separatist forces in the war-torn country, and warned that it viewed Emirati actions as "extremely dangerous."

The bombing followed tensions over the advance of Emirates-backed separatist forces known as the Southern Transitional Council. The council and its allies issued a statement supporting the UAE's presence, even as others allied with Saudi Arabia demanded that Emirati forces withdraw from Yemen in 24 hours' time.

The UAE called for “restraint and wisdom” and disputed Riyadh’s allegations. But shortly after that, it said it would withdraw its remaining troops in Yemen. It remained unclear whether the separatists it backs will give up the territory they recently took. The confrontation threatened to open a new front in Yemen’s decade-long war, with forces allied against the Iranian-backed Houthis rebels possibly turning their sights on each other in the Arab world's poorest nation. It also further strained ties between Saudi Arabia and the UAE, neighbors on the Arabian Peninsula that increasingly have competed over economic issues and regional politics, particularly in the Red Sea area. Tuesday's airstrikes and ultimatum appeared to be their most serious confrontation in decades.

"I expect a calibrated escalation from both sides. The UAE-backed Southern Transitional Council is likely to respond by consolidating control," said Mohammed al-Basha, a Yemen expert and founder of the Basha Report, a risk advisory firm. "At the same time, the flow of weapons from the UAE to the STC is set to be curtailed following the port attack, particularly as Saudi Arabia controls the airspace." A military statement carried by the state-run Saudi Press Agency announced the strikes on Mukalla, which it said came after ships arrived there from Fujairah in the UAE. The statement said crews disabled tracking and unloaded weapons to back Southern Transitional Council forces. AP

Israel says it will halt operations of two dozen aid groups in Gaza starting 2026

JERUSALEM

ISRAEL on Tuesday said it will suspend more than two dozen humanitarian organisations, including Doctors Without Borders, for failing to meet its new rules to vet international organisations working in the Gaza Strip.

The Ministry of Diaspora Affairs said that the organisations facing bans on January 1 didn't meet new requirements for sharing staff, funding and operations information. It accused Doctors Without Borders, one of the largest health organisations operating in Gaza, of failing to clarify the roles of some staff that Israel accused of cooperation with Hamas and other militant groups.

International organizations have said that Israel's rules are arbitrary and could endanger staff. The ministry said that around 25 organisations, or 15%, of nongovernmental organisations working in Gaza didn't have their permits renewed. Doctors Without Borders, also known by its French acronym MSF, didn't immediately respond to a request for comment. Israel previously accused its staff of involvement in military activities in Gaza in 2024. At the time, the group said that it would never knowingly employ people engaged in military activity.

Other major organisations whose permits weren't renewed include the Norwegian Refugee

Somali prez in Turkey after Somaliland move

ISTANBUL: Somalia's President Hassan Sheikh Mohamud arrived in Turkey for talks with President Recep Tayyip Erdogan, following Israel's announcement recognising Somaliland, the breakaway region of Somalia. Turkish officials said talks will focus on ties and counterterrorism.

Council, CARE International, the International Rescue Committee, and divisions of major charities such as Oxfam and Caritas, according to a list from the ministry. The organisations help with a variety of social services, including food distribution, health care, disability services, education and mental health.

Israel and international organisations have been at odds over the amount of aid going into Gaza. Israel says it's upholding the aid commitments laid out in the latest ceasefire that took effect October 10, but humanitarian organisations dispute Israel's numbers and say more aid is desperately needed in the devastated Palestinian territory of more than 2 million people.

Global tributes pour in for Khaleda Zia; leaders recall her political legacy

DHAKA

COUNTRIES across the globe, including the US, China, and India, on Tuesday recalled Khaleda Zia's decades-long role in shaping Bangladesh's politics as they expressed deep sorrow over the death of the former prime minister. Zia, the longtime chief of Bangladesh Nationalist Party's (BNP) and a three-time prime minister, died earlier in the day in Dhaka after a prolonged illness. She was 80. In a condolence message, Chinese Premier Li Qiang described Zia as a veteran politician and an "old friend" of the Chinese people who played an important role in advancing relations between Bangladesh and China during her tenure as prime minister.

In a media briefing in Beijing, Chinese foreign ministry spokesperson Lin Jian said during her tenure as prime minister, Zia actively advanced bilateral ties establishing a long-term, friendly, equal, and mutually beneficial comprehensive cooperative partnership. PTI
